Rev. J. Q. Montgomery, assisted by Elder Zack Williams, is conducting a very interesting meeting at Green River church and have had several additions to the church already. It has been reported that Mr. Ranzy Russell, of near this place, had lost his mind, which is a mistake, as he never loses a day from his farm work and as usual is perfectly balanced mentally.

The Misses Lina and Nora Lucas, of Sherman, Texas, who have been visiting relatives here for the past several months, returned to their home Tuesday. At last I come to the front again, having been on the sick list a part of the time and from home some and very busy at other times. G. R. J.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"A real anxiety was felt for the safety of the brave General Burnham of Michigan, when the doctors said he could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. B. Landon, who attended her that fearful night. "All through the night she sat by his bedside, and she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and her condition completely improved. This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. Only 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Penny's drug store."

McKINNEY.

Mr. Reuben Williams has received the sad intelligence of the death of his sister, Mrs. Julia Floyd, of Stansberry, Missouri.

By request of Mrs. Reuben Williams I wish to correct a statement. She went to Lexington with Mrs. White to bring back her little daughter, and to see her son, not for a reconciliation. Mrs. Williams is prostrated with grief over the terrible catastrophe.

In the early morning hours of Saturday the pure spirit of our loving young friend, Anna Baugh, exchanged the frail tabernacle of her earthly body for the home not made with hands. Anna was not yet 18 years old, had been a member of the Methodist church for some years and was a pure and devoted Christian and her life should be an example to the companions she left behind. Modest and quiet, she was a great favorite in our community, as was attested by the large company of relatives and friends who followed her remains to the cemetery and stood silently weeping as we laid her youthful form in the grave as if to quiet, peaceful slumber.

A MINISTER'S GOOD WORK.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I sent over to see him next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Our citizens should give Hon. W. B. Smith a good audience next Monday afternoon, as he is well posted on the political issues of the day.

In the circuit court Lewis McFarland, a colored deaf mute, was acquitted of the charge of detaining a colored woman. Harvey Robinson, colored, charged with malicious shooting, was also released. Several civil cases were disposed of. The juries were discharged from Wednesday until Friday. Court will likely adjourn Saturday. While Mr. William McC. Johnson was addressing a jury Wednesday, in defense of a colored man, he quoted County Attorney Letcher Owsley as having made a remark to him reflecting on the honor of democratic jurors in reference to giving justice to a republican. Owsley immediately pronounced it a lie and struck him with his chair. The prompt interference of Deputy Sheriff Ward and Judge Swaffey prevented any further trouble. The court ordered a fine of $30 to be entered against Mr. Owsley, which was promptly paid by his friends.

Hon. G. G. Gilbert's speech Monday was a powerful arraignment of the State and National republican administrations, and it was frequently applauded by the large and enthusiastic audience that heard him. He said that the republican cry of civil liberty was inconsistent with their past record in defying the constitution of the United States and committing fraud in National and other election contests; that Hanna had paid $10,000 for a legislator's vote to make him U. S. Senator; that McKinley's cabinet is made up of wealthy men, who represent trusts and corporations; that some Congressmen pay $2,000 per month board and get only $400 per month, which proves that they represent trusts instead of the people; that the trusts are on the republican side and the liberty loving on the democratic side; that we have become as European nations, with all the wealth, corporations and floaters on one side, and the intelligence and patriotism on the other; that trusts raise the price of the necessities of life and make the consumer pay their contributions to the republican campaign fund, and that the constitution made Goebel governor, while the Goebel election law seated Taylor, that law never having hurt a republican.

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Denning, Ind., who has an eleven months' old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Baking Powder Economy

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have always declined to produce a cheap baking powder at the sacrifice of quality.

The Royal is made from the most highly refined and wholesome ingredients, and is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price, and is cheaper at its price than any similar article.

Samples of mixtures made in imitation of baking powders, but containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or given away in grocery stores. Such mixtures are dangerous to use in food, and in many cities their sale is prohibited by law. Alum is a corrosive poison, and all physicians condemn baking powders containing it.

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
Of Nebraska.
For Vice-President,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
Of Illinois.
For Governor,
J. C. H. BECKHAM,
Of Nelson.
For Congress,
GEORGE G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby.

GOV. BECKHAM'S message to the Legislature shows that he is a man upon whom the people can depend. He does not believe that the present election law, enacted in good faith to meet an emergency, has been unfair or unjust, but opposition and dissatisfaction with the law, and whether reasonable or not, is for a more satisfactory one. It was improvement on the law it supplanted and by proper amendment can be made so fair that every fair minded citizen, be he victor or vanquished, can say that the verdict of the people has been faithfully rendered and victory awarded to him who deserves it. He makes no suggestions as to the amendments, satisfied that the Legislature will act patriotically and so just to all parties that no honest citizen can find fault with it. This is what every good citizen desires. Let the body act intelligently, satisfactorily and quickly and if Kentucky does not go overwhelmingly democratic this fall we very much mistake the temper of the people.

THE National Afro-American Press Association in session at Indianapolis on the 27th, refused to endorse McKinley, although he had two colored officeholders on the ground for the express purpose of getting such a resolution through. The members of this association are educated, and education always weakens the superstitious adherence of the Negro to the Republican party. Although he has been the ward of that party since his emancipation, the only thing it has attempted to do for him in the way of political education is to instill in his mind a falsehood that the only aim and object of the Republican party is to keep him out of slavery, while the Democrats lose sleep in devising means to enslave him. Those new constitutions requiring an educated suffrage eventually lead to the education of the Negro. When he is educated he will go to reading and thinking for himself and when he does that, he will know that the Democratic party is the party for him as well as every other free man.

THE Louisville News, which is edited by an ex-Democrat or at least one formerly monkeyed as a Democrat, is the Democratic party is feeling it. If it thinks that the Brownies will support Beckham, if the Goebel law is changed. A change in the law will be a confession of guilt, it says, but situation of the offices alone will support it. This may express the sentiment of a few of the never-to-be-satisfied good people, but we are sure that those who are worth returning, will go back to their first love. The news went off with the intention of being as their company, may joy go to them.

MR. YERKES has not answered our questions, but Judge Nick Vaughan, of Louisville, has for him. In a speech the other night, he said, "Yerkes will do what he can for me. In a speech of that kind and pardon every man who is a Democrat." This assurance, which was hardly needed, should be a warning to the Democrats to work the harder to win the smooth citizen of Boyle.

SENATOR HARRELL, who wrote a foolish open letter to Gov. Beckham, has apologized for it and will be famous by helping the Democratic party in every way he can. The Governor means well, but his balance gets out of order occasionally and of course he works wrong.

MR. CHARLES A. TOWNE in a speech at Danville, characterized Beckham as an "intellectual Comanche," "predaceous and incorrigible eagle." That's bad enough, but Todd even worse than that.

MR. SIMMONS says he must fight Jeff. Sept. 1, or not at all. He is only anxious to finish in time to go to Kentucky and see the Democratic knockout the Republicans on the 10th.

AN Old Fellow's reunion near Lexington, Ind., over 100 people were on ice cream. It must have been a good one.

THE has been another terrible riot in the North, this time at Danville, Ill. The North needs reconciliation badly.

YERKES will soon ascertain, if he already does not, that endorsement will result in his political pty.

CLARENCE E. WOODS, who recently left the Richmond Clinic, of which he was the life, because the management hampered him in his efforts to serve the people, is not hiding his light under a bushel, but is letting it shine through the "Aglator" in a way that those who would fatten by municipal plunder, despise. Whatever his hands do to do he does with all his might and in his "Aglator" he agitates with a courage born of the conviction that he is doing his people a lasting good.

GOV. BECKHAM owes it to the law abiding people to have John L. Powers brought to justice. If it takes every man in the State. He is at his Knox county home, where the county judge and county clerk went Tuesday night and accepted his bond as school superintendent. Powers says he may remain in Knox county a week or more and may visit some of the schools. Such a defiance of law should not be permitted for a minute.

If we should undertake to publish the names of all the Republicans who are deserting McKinley for Bryan, the size of the paper would have to be enlarged. John J. Valentine, president of the Wells-Fargo Express Co., and Prof. Henry Wade Rogers, ex-president of the Northwestern University, but now of Yale College, are the most prominent of the many recent additions to the endless chain.

MARK HANNA, who went to New York intending to remain a few days and then go West, now thinks that the exigencies of the campaign demand his presence in the East for awhile longer and has deferred his Western tour. The exigencies of the campaign, not only in the East, but all over the country, demand Mark's presence and demand it badly.

It can be stated as an absolute certainty that Indiana's next governor will be a Democrat, who, of course, will not perform himself by refusing to discharge the duties of his office. When Mount can no longer protect them from the outraged law, Taylor and Finley will doubtless call on the hills to cover them.

SINCE Bill Beckner has floundered entirely into the Republican party, Senator Beck's description of him is in order. Said he, "I have seen hundreds of pictures of Judas Iscariot, no two of which were alike, but every one of them favored Bill Beckner."

PAUL LEICESTER FORD, author of Ian, Peter Sterling and other works of note, is to be married to Miss Grace Kidder, of Brooklyn. The lady's surname in this connection is suggestive, but we refrain from comment.

GOV. PINGREE, of Michigan, refuses to campaign with Roosevelt. When so small a potato as Pingree is ashamed to keep his company, Teddy surely realizes how disgraceful his conduct has been.

POLITICAL.

Roosevelt will speak in Kentucky Oct. 12 and 13.

Judge J. H. Tinsley has announced for the judgeship in the London district.

Ollie James, just returned from New York, says Bryan is sure to carry the Empire State.

Senator Alexander got in the first election bill of the session in that body and Emmett Orr in the House.

Hon. George W. Leberich, of Newport, has been tendered the clerkship of Judge W. H. Holt's court in Porto Rico.

Arthur A. Phlegar was appointed to the supreme court in Virginia to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Leiby.

Chairman Richardson, of the Democratic Congressional committee, will move his headquarters from Washington to New York.

Capt. Irwin, republican nominee for Congress at Louisville, says the effort to get him off the track went work as he intends to stick if he gets but one vote.

Mr. Bryan decided after McKinley's declaration not to attend the G. A. R. meeting, as he desired to relieve the reunion of any appearance of partisanship.

The fusion pollists have substituted the name of Adlai E. Stevenson for that of C. A. Towne for vice president and their ticket is now Bryan and Stevenson.

Moody, who claims the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 7th district, has applied to the Bourbon court to have his name go on the ballot under the roster.

Mr. Bryan has declined an extensive stump tour, and will speak in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, New Jersey, Maryland and West Virginia.

The House at Frankfort agreed on the appointment of a committee of 12 to consider all new election measures. The Democrats are showing a growing disposition to adopt an entirely new law.

Taylor told the Indiana Republicans that in his opinion Goebel was either killed by Jack Chinn, one of Sandford's sons or by some drunken mountaineer, who did not know what he was doing. Lord, how the old rascal is given to lying!

A caucus of House Democrats was held to nominate candidates to fill vacancies caused by the resignations of officers. Edward O. Leigh was nominated for chief clerk. W. P. Thorne, Jr., for sergeant-at-arms and J. E. Miles for doorkeeper.

The colored lawyer, R. C. O. Benjamin, editor of the Lexington Standard, says that the lawyers for the defense in the Powers case, insulted, snubbed and abused him, George Denny being especially offensive, and he promises to write them up in the next issue of his paper.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Institute opened at 8:45. After singing, Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. R. B. Mahony, the institute got down to work for the day. Prof. Patterson took up Language work and gave the teachers some excellent hints on this important subject. He was followed by Miss Hicks, T. J. North, K. G. Martin and Mrs. Green. T. J. Raybourne introduced Grammar and Prof. White, Misses Yowell and Thurmond made excellent suggestions. This subject being exhausted, Prof. Patterson introduced Psychology and a lively discussion followed, and many good points were brought out by the institute. Miss Bellware then introduced Composition, and was followed by Mrs. Phillips, who read a most excellent paper. Geography being the next subject on the syllabus, it was introduced by the instructor and discussed by the institute in a very entertaining manner. Several teachers came in during the day and Misses Paxton and Lydia Lewis were made honorary members.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Institute opened at the usual hour. After several good songs by the choir, Rev. Brit read a few passages of Scripture and invoked Divine blessings. The teachers then answered to roll call with very appropriate quotations. The next subject for discussion was Arithmetic, which was introduced by Prof. Patterson. Mr. Mullins then gave an excellent talk showing some original primary work. Miss Nora Phillips also read a nice paper on this subject, when a general discussion followed and many good suggestions offered.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Civil Government was introduced by Prof. Patterson. He was followed by N. W. Hughes, who made an eloquent speech, which was highly appreciated and applauded by the institute. Prof. White, R. S. Young and the instructor also talked interestingly on the subject. After recess some rousing songs were sung. Mrs. Annie McClary then made a nice little talk on Temperance, in which she urged all teachers present to teach scientific temperance in their schools. Thursday afternoon being the time set apart for the trustees of the county, M. P. Hubble came forward and made a very interesting speech on education in general. His program, it was very forcibly and interestingly presented by the instructor, and some fine talks made by the male members of the institute.

Miss Georgia Lewis, always first in every good word and work, has our thanks for the proceedings. Prof. L. R. Hughes also is entitled to our thanks.

An open session of the Teachers' Institute was held at Walton's Opera House last night with the following program:

Chairman, L. R. Hughes.
Welcome Address, Mr. M. E. Pruitt.
Declaration, Robert Harding, Water.
Prize Solo, Miss Alice Hoffman.
Debate: Resolved That Woman be Allowed the Right of Suffrage.
Affirmative: Prof. White, K. G. Martin, T. J. North.
Negative: M. D. Winfrey, Chas. North, T. J. Raybourne.
Flower Girl, Miss Myrtle Hughes.
Solo, Miss Myrtle Hughes.
Reading as a Fine Art, Miss Myrtle Hughes.
Mandolin Selection, Miss Myrtle Hughes.
Oration—"John Wesley and His Age," Samuel W. Severance.
"Novellette," Miss Myrtle Hughes.
Solo, Miss Myrtle Hughes.
Miss Lillie Peyton.

The entertainment was a very pleasing one and enjoyed by a theatre full of people. Mr. Pruitt's welcoming address, the debate on whether women should be allowed to vote; Prof. Patterson's excellent paper on "Reading as a Fine Art," the musical performances of Miss Isabella Bailey's class, the oration of Sam Walton, Severance, the efforts of the little ones and Miss Peyton's solo with piano and violin accompaniment by Miss Myrtle Hughes and C. E. Cox, respectively, were of a character to elicit much praise and applause.

The women's rights question was decided in favor of the affirmative by the judges, Ed Hubbard, Will Severance and J. H. White, though there were many who thought the negative presented the best arguments.

Instructor J. H. Patterson has given the greatest satisfaction to the teachers, all of whom speak of his excellent suggestions and methods in the highest terms. Supt. Singleton is being congratulated on securing him.

Music is a special feature and with

Prof. M. E. Pruitt, as leader, the teachers make melody that invariably draws a crowd to the institute.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Tom Matlock, a 15-year-old Hereford, shot himself fatally while fooling with a pistol.

Town Marshal Reynolds shot Samuel Graves, of Scott, who was drunk and flourishing a pistol at Jonesville, in Owen.

Capt. Garrett Howard, a Pineville republican politician, who has two sons in the Philippines, has declared for Bryan as he can not support McKinley's Imperialistic policy.

John Peavyhouse was badly cut by Cleve Wilcher, another lad, at threshing in Casey and the latter is sojourning at Tom Bell's hotel, in Liberty, until John's condition will favor judicial investigation of the affair.

Lizzie Smallwood and Mary Smallwood, sisters, and Thomas Williams, one of their associates, were arrested in Laurel, after a desperate struggle with the officers and lodged in jail charged with handling and confederating and trying to kill George Stewart.

MATRIMONIAL.

Marion Bingham, 18, and Miss Lee Kemp, 17, were married in Adair county.

John Avey and Miss Rebecca Noaks were married at Rev. David Noaks' Wednesday.

John Foster broke the record at Detroit, Mich., by marrying the day after his wife died. He should have broken his neck instead of the record.

Tallow Dick Combs was arrested for selling whisky at Winchester.

Breese, who assassinated King Humbert, was given a life sentence only. With a view to settling the Chinese situation, Russia has protested against the alleged purpose of the admirals at Taku to seize Li Hung Chang, and the United States has concurred in this protest. The purpose of this is to allow the Chinese plenipotentiary full freedom with his government. The plan also involves the withdrawal of the allied troops from Peking, so as to allow the Dowager Empress and the Emperor Kwang Tsu to return.

FIXED.—The Richmond Register says that Anderson Carr, of Stanford, Harvey Broadus, Ed. Gaines and Geo. Steward, all of color, were arrested on a charge of the illegal sale of whiskey. They were taken before Judge Rice and Carr was fined $100 and costs while the others were released. Carr had a booth rented at the colored fair and instead of selling strictly what he had a right to sell he procured some whiskey and sold it on the grounds. The other three were only hired by Carr as clerks.

Typhoid fever was his trouble. The burial will occur at Crab Orchard this afternoon.

WILLIAMSBURG.

EDITOR GOES THERE TO ANSWER LETTERS, BUT GETS CAPTURED.

We have met the "enemy" and we are there. We descended over into their country Wednesday and were not only captured, but really enraptured with our captors. It was in the county of Whitley and in the good city of Williamsburg that we capitulated and stacked arms as it were, never to fight again. If indeed we ever did fight them collectively or individually, which allegation we deny and defy the allegations. The reason of our pilgrimage to the little city in the hills was to answer an invitation extended by ex-State Inspector, Columbus W. Lester, to show cause why we should not pay up $5,000 for simply reproducing what was apparently a well authenticated statement that he had sent a certain telegram to one Robert Noaks, who was in custody of an officer. Two responsible papers at least had so charged before we printed the item, but immediately on seeing Mr. Lester's denial of the charge, we gave him the benefit of it and before we dreamed of a suit over the matter. After we saw by a dispatch in the Courier Journal that he had brought suit, we published a full explanation of our position in the premises and not only denied the slightest malice in the publication, but any desire whatever to reflect on Mr. Lester, whom, although not personally acquainted with him, we knew to be a good man, and to have filled a responsible position under Gov. Bradley most creditably. The explanation did not seem to satisfy Mr. Lester, however, and he continued to insist that we come to Williamsburg and tell the court that we were not animated either with malice or with a desire to reflect on Mr. Lester, as we lawyers say, which we are sure the court, who has known us from boyhood knows without being told. The case was set for Wednesday, but on account of the absence of one of our attorneys, his attorneys and Mr. Lester kindly consented to a continuance to another day of the term. In this connection we may say parenthetically that if we know ourselves we would not intentionally injure a living creature by word or publication and that had Mr. Lester complained to us directly we should have taken delight in settling him right and making the fullest amends possible. We don't have to be sued to make us do right, but try to do it under any and all circumstances. We found Mr. Lester to be anything but a bad man from Bitter Creek. In fact he appears to be a pretty clever fellow, but liable like all humans to go wrong occasionally and bring legal suits.
We had the good fortune by suggestion of Judge Alcorn to find an abiding place at Mrs. Neeley's hotel. She keeps a good one and Judge Morrow and the visiting attorneys, making their home with her, it is a delightful pleasant place to spend a day and night. Mrs. Neeley is a pretty young widow and was expecting a friend by the train and we arrived on, but he didn't come and Judge Alcorn explained that the heartiness of the welcome she extended as was due to the fact that she took us for the one expected. Speaking of Judge Alcorn reminds us to say that the people of Whitley and, in fact all the counties he practices in, look upon him as the greatest man living. This new view of him, the women name their children after him and the other lawyers defer to him and regard his opinion as not only the law, but the gospel besides. The judge certainly has got 'em tricked up there and if the matter was left to them he would be governor, president or anything else he might call for.
Saddened by the severest loss that can befall a man, after almost a life time of happy consort, Judge Morrow is not the bright and cheerful man he was when he used to preside over the Lincoln circuit court, but occasionally his well-known and peculiarly characteristic laugh at a good joke, which he tells with great humor, puts everybody in a cheering mood. Like us, he never was much faster than a watch and the few pounds of flesh that he has accumulated since we saw him last, shows up well on him. He apologized for not coming to Stanford while he was at Crab Orchard, and we accepted his apology on a promise that he would never be so remiss again.
We formed a number of pleasant acquaintances in Williamsburg including Mr. J. W. Siler, cashier of the local bank. It is said you never really know a man till you have had a fight with him and while we did not exactly have a fight with Mr. S. we should have jumped him had we known at the time that the local militia company had been mustered out that day. The point of his offending lay in a very humiliating remark he made as we were introduced. "I know your son, Ed, very well," he said, which was enough to make even an older man than we, who imagine we look almost as young as we used to be, get hot in the collar. We restrained our feelings though, when he suggested that he would have a hempen necktie adjusted to our case if we didn't look "a little odd." Mr. Siler has held many offices of honor and trust in his county and is at present the republican representative on the election commission. "What are you democrats going to do with the election law?" he asked. "Give you one that the meanest Brownie or the worst republican can't out-guess," we responded, when he continued: "We never had a fairer, squarer election in Whitley county than the one held under the Gobbel law, because the democratic commissioners were as honest as myself, but the opportunists for fraud under it, are too numerous in these days of anxiety to obtain party advantage." Mr. Siler is a whole-souled and highly pleasant gentleman, such as one

We had never met nor attorneys, Messrs. Tye and Denham before. They are up to snuff in their profession and leaders of a good bar. Mr. Tye is after our own heart politically, but Mr. Denham is bound to republican idols. He's all right, however, otherwise and we overlook the only objection to him for the same reason that the great entertainer, Polk Miller, says an old dandy gave him when he asked "kates, why is it that you always vote the republican ticket?" "Just because I don't know no better, Mr. Miller," he acknowledged.
Williamsburg is a really pretty little city, but it being laid off after the order of Boston, with its angles and curves, a tenderfoot can easily lose his bearings. There are many pretty residences and the academy and Baptist Institute buildings will compare favorably with those of any place of its size. In one particular, if no other, it is ahead of Stanford. Its electric lights burn all night, while ours shut off shortly past midnight. We never saw a quieter or more orderly place than the capital of Whitley and we have a notion of going there to live, if we have any money left after Brer Lester gets through with us.
The militia company here, organized on a republican basis, was mustered out by Capt. Calhoun Tuesday, when it is said that the boys returned about twice as many guns as they got.
We are indebted to Depot Agent J. B. White for courtesies. He held open his office an hour at night to receive an answer to a dispatch we sent. Of course so obliging a gentleman could not be other than a good democrat.

Most of the towns along the line are holding their own, while Livingston is fairly growing and spreading like a green bay tree. The last time we were there a miserable old hovel was called by courtesy, the depot. Now a handsome several story building in which Chief Train Dispatcher L. M. Westfield and an able corps hold forth, rears its commodious proportions heavenward, modernly fitted with water and other conveniences, while flower gardens appear and cooling fountains play on hillside and valley. The place is unusually well provided with hotels and flourishing stores abound.
The L. & N. doesn't give us a pass any more, but makes us pay for riding just like the other common folks, so when we compliment the improvements it has made along the line and say it has the cleverest employees of any road in the country, we do it from a purely disinterested standpoint. It is a pleasure to ride, albeit at 3 cents a mile, with such men as Capt. Joe Robinson, of the main train, and Capt. J. B. Douglas, of the "Short Dog." They are gentlemen, who know how to treat gentlemen, and to make ladies feel that it is a privilege to ride on their trains.
The "Short Dog," as the train Capt. Douglas runs is strangely called, is perhaps the slowest train in the world, not even excepting the "jerkwater," that runs between here and Richmond on the K. C. It takes more than an hour to run the 17 miles between Corbin and Williamsburg and an expert railroader could easily jump off the engine, run around the train and get on the rear, when it is going its fastest. The track seems to be good and why people's patience should be so severely taxed is inexplicable, unless the L. & N. wants to give its patrons a long time ride for a little money.

Our mission was far from a pleasant one, but we rather enjoyed the diversion, and shall not therefore quarrel with our friend, the enemy, Mr. Lester, for making us make it.

THE BRODHEAD FAIR.

The fifth annual exhibition of the Rockcastle Fair Association is going on at Brodhead and Rockcastle people as well as those from numerous other counties are enjoying it. Wednesday, the first day, was devoted mostly to farm products, needle work and women's work generally, and the display was fine. A good trotting race, a running race and a mule race were hotly contested in the afternoon. Wilcox won the former with Higgins and Traynor second and third James Spummore won the running and E. J. Mick the mule race. Bud Dunn, brother of our A. C. Dunn, got the blue in the walking ring with his great mare that has never known defeat. Nearly all of the rings were well filled and some had as high as 10 entries.
The Mt. Vernon band, Editor E. A. Albright, leader, is furnishing fine music.
Col. Jordan Peter Chandler, as ring marshal, is a howling success.
The skin games are there by the dozen.
H. C. Jones got premium on yellow corn, white corn and variety of corn, broom corn, cane, peaches and won the pony race. "Rattler" is a hustler.
B. A. Riddle won on bees and pears. His bees were almost as large as pumpkins.
Mrs. Dr. Percy Barton won on butter and Mrs. Dr. Haggard on cake.
Miss Ella Dunn took four ties: Blackberry wine, peach preserves, honey and best trimmed bonnet.
A beautiful lot of silk quilts were exhibited. Rockcastle ladies can beat the world with the needle.
President, J. Thomas Cherry; Secretary, J. W. Tate, and Vice President, A. J. Pike, are making everybody have a good time. They are the right men for the places they fill. The directors are the most substantial men in the county.
The crowd yesterday was fairly good and stock of various kinds from several counties was exhibited. Everybody seemed in a good humor and the day was a thoroughly enjoyable one. Hon. G. G. Gilbert and Col. W. G. Welch were among the distinguished guests who received much attention. The night to a large audience and as usual made a fine speech. Lack of space prevents our giving the awards in full but appended are some of the more important ones:

W. H. Brannaman got premiums on mule one and under two, mule two and under three, buck any age, ewe any age.
P. Franelico, short, blue and Berkshire sow.
Wm. Hysinger, bull calf, bull any age.
H. C. Jones, cow any age.
R. E. Gaines, of Lincoln, bull calf—a magnificent one.
Henry Sutton got several ties, including one on pair of mules.
H. C. Edwards, gelding, one year and under two, gelding two and over and gelding any age.
Leslie Dunn, son of A. C. Dunn, of Lincoln, won the premium for the best boy rider, defeating Bud Dunn's son, who had never been beaten.
Bud Dunn, best and smoothest walker.
Miss Etta Pike won in the ring—best lady rider.
Len Shannon, of Lincoln, mare two years and over.
D. S. Wilcox, of Richmond, won the racing race in straight heats, with Napier & McClure, of Crab Orchard, second and H. H. Riddle, of Rockcastle, third.
Scout Farris won the running race.
Three of the handsomest married women on the ground were almost inseparable yesterday. They were Messrs. James J. W. Brown, J. Thomas Cherry and James L. Hamilton, the latter of Lancaster.
G. A. Morgan won the INTERIOR JOURNAL premium—best lot of washed and picked wool.
A great crowd is expected today and the program is the best yet. Much interest is centered in the fancy turn-out ring and there will probably be as many as 10 entries. The racing card includes the $100 trot.

LOST between Stanford and Millersville, a red back pocket day book, containing valuable papers. Reward, Charles Lutes, Millersville.

THEIR many friends deeply sympathize with John S. Murphy and wife in the loss of their little son, just a year old. Cholera infantum took the little fellow away and caused aching hearts in the household. The burial will occur in Buffalo cemetery this morning.
